

REVELATION REVIEW

CHAPTER 11

1. We are still in the _____ between the blowing of the 6th and 7th Trumpets.
2. The 7th trumpet will be blown when? _____
3. Some speculate about the timing on this chapter, and believe everything up to the blowing of the 7th trumpet happens in the _____ of the Tribulation.
4. Either way, this chapter covers at least how much time? _____
5. John is sent on an “errand” at the beginning of this chapter? Where? _____
6. This chapter has two different scenes. One involves the _____ and the other involves the _____
7. The focus of this chapter returns to _____
8. Both the _____ and the _____ Temples are seen in this chapter.
9. Reeds were commonly used for measurement in Biblical times. Measure in scripture is about “worth, and not necessarily dimensions. It is often associated with _____
10. Exactly what is to be measured by John? (3 things) _____

11. What does it mean for John to measure “those who worship there?” _____

12. The word for “temple” here is the Greek naos. This particular word implies exactly which part of the temple? _____
13. Interestingly John is told to “leave out” the court outside the temple. What is this courtyard generally called? _____
14. The scripture says this area has been “given over to the Gentiles.” What specifically now occupies this space? _____
15. What is the “holy city?” _____
16. How long will it be trampled? _____

17. Many try to make Revelation a “symbolic” book, yet John is given some very specific (NOT symbolic) time frames several times in this chapter. What are those, and how much time do they cover? _____

18. Now in verse 3 we are introduced to two characters who are called the _____

19. In scripture, how long is a prophetic “year?” _____
20. What does it mean to be “clothed in sackcloth?” _____
21. The two characters are also called two _____ and two _____
22. Where are these referenced elsewhere in scripture? _____
23. Two is the required number for _____ in the Torah.
24. What will happen to the “holy city,” and for how long? _____

25. What is the lampstand (Menorah) in the Temple a symbol of? _____

26. What are some of the ideas about what the olive trees and the lampstands represent?

27. What happens to anyone who wants to harm these two? _____

28. What other powers do these two have? _____

29. Who else in scripture had the power to “shut heaven?” _____
30. How long will there be no rain at this time? _____
31. Who else in scripture had the “power over waters to turn them to blood and strike the earth with all plagues...?” _____

32. Because of your answers above and other comparable reasons, who do many commentators believe are the two witnesses (their identities)? _____

33. What are some of the other speculations? _____
34. What can you say is the “bottom line” about the identity of the two witnesses? _____

35. What happens when they “finish their testimony?” _____

36. The two witnesses are _____ until their work for God is finished.
37. What “ascends out of the bottomless pit?” _____
38. There are two “beasts” referenced in the next chapter (13), one from the _____ and another from the _____
39. The beast referenced here in this chapter is another. What is the speculation about this identity? _____
40. What happens to the two witnesses at this point? _____
41. What happens to their bodies? _____
42. For how long? _____
43. There is a city referenced here that is given some interesting names, _____ and _____, but the greatest clue is “where also our Lord was crucified.” What is this city? _____
44. Why was this city referenced in this way? _____

45. What does the phrase “those who dwell on the earth” (used over 20 times in Revelation) refer to? _____
46. What do these people do when the two witnesses are killed? _____

47. Read Psalm 79:1-3, 10-11. What do these passages have to do with this chapter in Revelation? _____

48. What happened after the prescribed period of time? _____
49. What was the response of people who saw this? _____
50. What were the two witnesses told to do? _____
51. What modern term would we give what happened to them next? _____
52. Who witnessed this event? _____
53. What happened in the same hour? _____

54. How many were killed? _____
55. What did the others do then? _____
56. All of these events up to now are considered the _____ "woe."
57. What are we told about the next woe? _____
58. Now the _____ trumpet finally sounds.
59. Describe what John sees and hears at this point: _____

60. What are the 24 elders doing, and what do they say? _____

61. We have just finished the second set of judgments, the trumpets. But we still have one more set of seven to go, the Bowl Judgments. So what does it mean when the voice proclaims, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ..." According to our timeline, that hasn't completely happened yet. Why is this statement made here? _____

62. Read Psalm 2. How does this relate to Revelation? _____

63. Verse 18 continues to reveal how God's plan is going to roll out. List these events mentioned here by completing these blanks:
- a) The nations _____

- b) Your wrath _____
- c) The time of the dead _____
- d) You should reward _____
- e) Destroy those _____

64. What happens after these words, in verse 19? _____

65. What things accompanied (and often accompany) the scene here: _____

66. Verses 15-19 can be seen as an _____ to the end.

67. Write a few words to sum up the activity in this chapter: _____

68. What strikes you most about this chapter? What are your personal thoughts (or lingering questions)? _____

REVELATION CHAPTER 11: THE TEMPLE AND THE TWO WITNESSES

If you are so inclined, try to sketch what you see as you read this chapter.