

REVELATION REVIEW

CHAPTER 6

1. What begins in this chapter, and runs for the next 14 chapters? _____
2. Because of the extremes related in this chapter, it could be considered:
a) a disaster chapter b) an overview of entire Tribulation c) allegorical only d) not real
3. This chapter begins a period of time also known as the _____th week of _____
4. What is not mentioned at all in chapters 6 through 18? _____
5. How many “sets” of judgments are in the book of Revelation, and what are they? _____

6. Which set is shown in this chapter? _____
7. “Come and see” may also be interpreted as _____
8. What is the common, secular title given to the first four seal judgments? _____

9. What is the first seal judgment? Describe what John sees: _____

10. What is this first rider missing that might be a clue about his activities? _____
11. What is a common, but very incorrect, interpretation of the rider in this seal? _____
12. Who IS the rider in this first seal? _____
13. There are two different Greek words used for “crown” in scripture. One is stephanos, the other diadema. What is the distinction between them, and why is that important? _____

14. The color of this creature in the 1st seal is _____. This color/animal is a customary symbol for _____
15. What does this first seal signify? _____
16. Describe what John sees when the 2nd seal is opened: _____

17. The color of this creature in the 2nd seal is _____. This color is often identified in scripture as connected with _____
18. What does this second seal signify? _____
19. Describe what John sees when the 3rd seal is opened: _____

20. The color of this creature in the 3rd seal is _____. This color is often identified in scripture as connected with _____
21. What do the scales represent? _____
22. What do the “oil and wine” represent? _____
23. What does this third seal signify? _____
24. Describe what John sees when the 4th seal is opened: _____

25. The color of this creature in the 4th seal is _____. This color is often identified in scripture as connected with _____
26. (Bonus: What is the Greek word for this color? _____)
27. This creature has two riders. Who/what are they? _____
28. How much of the earth do these riders have power over? _____
29. The second rider/s name in this seal is the Greek word for what Old Testament place in Hebrew?

30. These riders will be able to _____ four different ways. List them here:

31. Where else in scripture are these 4 things also mentioned? _____
32. What does this fourth seal signify? _____
33. Describe what John sees when the 5th seal is opened: _____

34. Who do these “main characters” represent? _____

35. What do they ask? _____

36. What is the answer to their question? _____

37. What are they each given? _____

38. What does this gift represent? _____

39. Many will be martyred for their faith during this time. What truth does this 5th seal reveal about this time? _____

40. Who are “those who dwell on the earth?” _____

41. Provide a list of things that happen when the 6th seal is opened:

42. Interestingly, six different types of people do what immediately after these things? _____

43. List the six types of people: _____

What is their request? _____

If you want a little study exercise, look up the following scriptures and then indicate what they all have in common: Nahum 1:5, Isaiah 34:4, 40:22, 42:5, 44:27, 45:12, 51:13; Jeremiah 10:12, 51:15; Zechariah 12:1. And further, what do these scriptures together tell you about the book of Revelation in general?

44. Write a few words to sum up the activity in this chapter: _____

45. What strikes you most about this chapter? What are your personal thoughts (or lingering questions)? _____

REVELATION CHAPTER 6: THE SEALS ARE OPENED

If you are so inclined, try to sketch what you see as you read this chapter.